

AGILE FOR TEAMS

ONLINE & SELF-PACED COURSE

COURSE SUMMARY

Agile for Teams is a self-paced online training course based on our popular instructor-led training course. Participants include agile team members, Product Owners, and Scrum Masters. The main benefit of the online approach is that participants have the flexibility to take the course and complete the exercises on their own schedule and from wherever they want. Following the training, participants will be ready to roll up their sleeves and hit the ground running with agile ways of working.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This course is best suited to those individuals who are new to Agile and want to get up to speed quickly. This includes programmers, business analysts, architects, testers, Scrum Masters, and Product Owners. Key team stakeholders such as project managers, managers, and subject matter experts will also benefit from attending.
